aforesaid exceed the said Rate of Four Shillings in the Pound and the said Overplus shall or may be discharged upon the Duplicate to be returned for such City Borough Town Port Parish or Place respectively and shall be allowed upon the Account of the respective Receivers Generall and the Inhabitants of every such City Borough Town Port Parish or Place shall be acquitted against Her Majesty Her Heirs and Successors for and touching the Payment of any such Overplus Money so discharged or ordered to be discharged by the Barons of the Exchequer or any Two or more of them as aforesaid Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding And that such Parish Town Port or Place so discharged by the said Barons and no others shall have the Benefitt of the Sūms discharged by this Act and no Officer or any Deputy or Clerke whatsoever shall take any Fee Reward or Gratuity for or upon Account of such Discharge.

CIV. The Overplus to be abated out of the Sums laid on such Place only.

AND it is hereby declared That the Overplus Sūms so to be discharged shall be abated out of the Sūms laid on such respective City Borough Town Parish or Place onely and shall not be construed or taken to lessen abate or discharge any of the Sūms or Proportions to be raised in any other City Borough Town Parish or Place whatsoever.

CV. The Parishes of St. John, St. Peter, and Berchington to be charged in Dover Liberty, according to the Assessment, Stat. 4 W. & M. c. 1.

PROVIDED alwaies and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the Parishes of S^t. John S^t. Peter and Berchington in the Isle of Thannett within the Liberty of Dover shall be deemed and taken to be a distinct Division within the said Liberty and in the executing of this Act shall be charged towards [the[1]] making up the whole Sūm charged on the Town of Dover and the Liberty thereof according to the Proportion which was assessed upon the said Parishes by virtue of Act of Parliament passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary entituled An Act for granting to Their Majesties an Aid of Four Shillings in the Pound for One Year for carrying on a vigorous Warr against France and no otherwise.

CVI.

No Receiver to return a Super upon any County, &c. after Three Years, for Monies in Arrear;

but the same to be a Debt on him and his Sureties.

AND whereas some Receivers of former Land Taxes have neglected or delayed the passing of their Accounts in the Exchequer in due Time and have after severall Years elapsed set insuper some Counties Divisions or Places or Places for Monies which were there raised and for the answering whereof due Proofe might have been made in case such Receivers had accounted sooner whereby severall Counties Divisions and Places have been put to unreasonable Charge and Vexation it is hereby provided declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That no Receiver whatsoever of any Monies granted by this Act to be raised in England Wales or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed or any Heirs Executors or Administrators of any such Receiver shall in any Account of the Monies wherewith such Receiver shall be chargeable (unles such Account be declared and passed in the Exchequer within Three Years at the farthest after the Four and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ten) be admitted or allowed to set insuper or charge any County Division or Place in England Wales or [the[2]] Town of Berwick upon Tweed for any Monies granted by this Act which shall be in arrear or unpaid but that the same shall remaine a Debt upon every such Receiver to be answered by him and his Sureties his and their Heirs Executors and Administrators Lands Tenements Goods and Chattells respectively Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

AND for the Encouragement of the Iron Manufacture of Great Britain Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and eleven there shall not be allowed any Drawback or Repayment of Customs or Duties charged upon any Iron or Steel that hath or shall be imported into Great Britain and afterwards exported to or for Her Majesties Plantations or Colonies in America Any Clause in any former Act to the contrary notwithstanding LVII. Recital of Stat. 10 W. III. c. 23.

AND whereas notwithstanding an Act made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of the late King William intituled An Act for suppressing of Lotteries and the Prohibitions and Penalties therein several Persons of late have presumed contrary to the Intent of the said Act to set up Lotteries in Imitation of the Lottery directed to be drawn by virtue of an Act of the last Session of Parliament and other Lotteries which are prejudicial to the Publick and tend greatly to defraud Her Majesties Subjects Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the said Act of the Tenth Year of the late King William shall be put in Execution And for the more effectual suppressing and preventing such unlawful Lotteries the Justices of the Peace and all Mayors Bailiffs Head Officers Constables and other Her Majesties Civil Officers within their respective Jurisdictions are hereby impowered and required to use their utmost Endeavours to prevent the drawing of any such unlawful Lottery heretofore or hereafter to be set up by all lawful Ways and Means and that every Person who after the Eighth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ten shall set up or shall by Writing or Printing publish the setting up any such unlawful Lottery with Intent to have such Lottery drawn shall forfeit for every such Offence One hundred Pounds to be recovered by Information Bill Plaint or Action at Law in any of Her Majesties Courts at Westminster wherein no Essoign Wager of Law nor any more than one Imparlance shall be allowed One Third Part thereof to the Use of Her Majesty Her Heirs and Successors One other Third Part thereof to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed and the other Third Part thereof together with full Costs to the Party who shall inform and sue for the same

Stat. 10 W. III. c. 23. concerning Lotteries, to be put in Execution.

Persons setting up such Lotteries,

Penalty £100.

LVIII. Person setting up Insurances on Marriages, Births, &c.

AND whereas several ill disposed Persons with Design to defraud Her Majesties Subjects have of late presumed to erect and set up Offices or Places for making Insurances on Marriages Births Christnings or Service which Practices are also prejudicial to the Publick and tend to defraud Her Majesties Subjects Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That every Person or Persons who after the Eighth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ten shall erect or set up any Office or Place for making Assurances on Marriages Births Christnings and Service or on any of them shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five hundred Pounds to be recovered and distributed in such Manner as the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds last mentioned is to be recovered and distributed and every Person or Persons who after the said Eighth Day of March in any Office or Place before the said Eighth Day of March erected or set up for making Insurances on Marriages Births Christnings and Service or on any of them shall make or suffer to be made therein any new Insurances or Contracts for new Insurances on Marriages Births Christnings and Service or [on[1]] any of them shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds to be recovered and distributed in like Manner

Penalty £500.

Contracting for new Insurances in Offices already set up,

Penalty £100.

LIX. Offices set up before 8th March, continued for making good former Insurances only.

PROVIDED nevertheless That such Offices and Places erected set up or used before the said Eighth Day of March for making Insurances on Marriages Births Christnings and Services or on any of them may be continued after the said Eighth Day of March for making good and executing only such Insurances or Contracts for Insurances therein respectively made before the said Eighth Day of March as they might have continued if this Act had not been made Any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding LX. Long Pepper not chargeable with 1s. 6d. under 8 Ann. c. 12.

AND whereas some Doubt hath arisen whether Long Pepper might not be chargeable with the additional Duty of One Shilling and Six Pence per Pound chargeable upon all and all manner of Pepper by virtue of the Act made the last Session of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty new Duties of Excise upon several imported Commodities for preventing therefore of any Disputes concerning the same Be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That Long Pepper shall not be deemed construed or taken to be charged or chargeable with the said Duty of One Shilling and Six Pence per Pound Any thing in the said last mentioned Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding LXI. Some Benefit Tickets in the last Lottery not being adjusted, present Managers may settle them before 27th May 1711.

AND whereas it hath so happened That the Properties of several Tickets entitled to Benefits in the Lottery of One million five hundred thousand Pounds for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ten were not adjusted by the Managers and Directors of the said Lottery the Persons possessed of the said Tickets their Agents or Assigns not appearing with the same before the said Managers and Directors within the Space of Seventy Days after the Drawing of the said Lottery was finished as the Act of Parliament in that Case did provide and direct Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Managers and Directors that shall be appointed by Her Majesty to put this present Act in Execution or any Seven or more of them to settle and adjust the Properties of the said Tickets not settled and adjusted by the former Managers and Directors for the Cause aforesaid provided the said Persons possessed of the said Tickets their Agents or Assigns do appear with the said Tickets before the Managers and Directors executing this Act on or before the Twenty seventh Day of May One thousand seven hundred and eleven and the said Managers and Directors are hereby required to certify the Properties of and in all such Tickets as shall be claimed before them within the Time aforesaid into the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Her Majesties Exchequer and to the Commissioner or Chief Officer of the Transfer Office in like Manner as the same should or ought to have been done by the Managers and Directors of the said former Lottery in case such Default of Appearance by the Persons possessing the said Tickets or their Assigns had not been made Any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER VII.

Rot. Parl. 9 Annæ, p. 2. n. 6.

AN ACT for enabling and obliging the Bank of England for the Time therein mentioned to exchange all Exchequer Bills for ready Money upon Demand and to disable any Person to be Governor Deputy Governor or Director of the Bank of England and a Director of the East India Company at the same Time.

Recital of Stat. 7 Ann. c. 30.

MAY it please Your most Excellent Majesty Whereas in pursuance of [all '] Act of Parliament made in the Seventh Year of Your Majesties Reign (amongst other Things) for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England several Bills commonly called Exchequer Bills have been made forth amounting in Principal Money to Two millions and five hundred thousand Pounds for Her Majesties Supply and in pursuance of another Act of the same Session of Parliament made (amongst other Things) for circulating a further Sum in Exchequer Bills and of an Act made in the Eighth Year of Your Majesties Reign [intituled An Act for granting an Aid to Her Majesty to be raised by a Land Tax in Great Britain for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ten] further Exchequer Bills to the Amount of Four hundred thousand Pounds in Principal Money have been also made out and issued for Her Majesties Supply

AND whereas in pursuance of the said Acts (over and above the Bills aforesaid amounting in the whole to Two millions nine hundred thousand Pounds) other Exchequer Bills for Interest after the Rate of Two Pence per Centum per Diem and for a certain Allowance after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum have been made forth and are still to be made forth Quarterly until the Fonds mentioned in the said Acts shall take Effect as is thereby directed and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England by the said Acts or some of them are obliged and required to exchange such of the said Exchequer Bills which (after the making forth of the same) have been or shall have been paid to any Receivers or Collectors of any Your Majesties Revenues Aids Taxes or Supplies as have been or shall have been exchanged by such Receivers or Collectors for ready Money and which also have been or shall have been paid by such Receivers or Collectors into Her Majesties Exchequer and likewise have been or shall have been reissued or repaid from Her Majesties Exchequer in the Manner and Form in the said Acts expressed as the said Governor and Company shall be required to exchange by any Person or Persons whatsoever for ready Money and so toties quoties as often as the said Bills should be paid into the Exchequer by such Receivers or Collectors and be from thence reissued in Manner and Form thereby prescribed and the said Governor and Company are not by the said Acts or any of them obliged to exchange or pay ready Money for any of the said Bills until the said Bills shall have had a Currency in the Revenue or Taxes and shall have been reissued at the Exchequer as aforesaid and so toties quoties in Manner and Form as aforesaid and by the said Acts or some of them the said Fonds are further charged with a Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds yearly for the discharging and cancelling the said Bills as in and by the said several Acts of Parliament (relation being thereunto respectively had) may more fully appear

III. Contract with the Bank for answering Non-specie Exchequer Bills.

AND whereas we Your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled did resolve on the Sixteenth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and ten that an annual Sum not exceeding Forty five thousand Pounds should be granted to enable Your Majesty to contract for answering all Non-specie Exchequer Bills by exchanging them from time to time for ready Money and thereupon the said Governor and Company have humbly proposed that in case a sufficient Fond should be granted to Your Majesty for Payment of Forty five thousand Pounds per Annum to the said Governor and Company by quarterly Payments from the Time their Undertaking in this Behalf shall commence until the One and thirtieth Day of July One thousand seven hundred and fourteen and if a like Sum of Forty five thousand Pounds per Annum to commence and take Effect from the said One and thirtieth Day of July One thousand seven hundred and fourteen and to be also payable Quarterly out of the Fonds established by the said Acts or some of them for the Payment of the said Interest and Allowance and for discharging and cancelling the said Exchequer Bills shall (after the Payment of such Interest and Allowance and with Preference to the cancelling or discharging any of the said Bills) be appropriated and continued to the said Governor and Company until such Time as all the said Quarterly Exchequer Bills made or to be made for Interest or Allowance as aforesaid upon the said Bills for Two millions nine hundred thousand Pounds together with a Million of the said Bills for Two millions nine hundred thousand Pounds shall be paid and cancelled or until such Time as of the said Bills for Two millions nine hundred thousand Pounds and quarterly as the Total Sum of such Taxations of the Parishes in any County where there should be above Fifty Parishes did not exceed the Rate of Six Pence for every Parish in the same County and that all the Surplusage of Money which should be remaining in the Stock of any County should by the Discretion of the more Part of the Justices of Peace in their Quarter Sessions be ordered distributed and bestowed upon such good and charitable Uses and in such Form as are limited and appointed in the Statutes made and now in force concerning Relief of the Poor and Punishment of Rogues and Beggars And whereas by a Statute made in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second intituled An Act for Relief of poor Prisoners and setting of them on Work (reciting that whereas One thousand Pounds was provided by certain Trustees upon Proposals and Agreements made by them with certain Gentlemen Justices of the Peace for the County of Devon who had also provided One thousand Pounds more in order to purchase Lands of Inheritance for the good Purposes in the said last recited Act mentioned it is (amongst other Things) enacted that the said Two thousand Pounds should be laid out in the Purchase of Lands of Inheritance by Order of the General Sessions of the Peace then after at any Time to be held in the Name of such Persons as by such Order should be appointed and of Stat. 18 & 19 Car. II. c. 9. § 4.

II. Reasons for passing this Act.

AND whereas the Sum of Eight hundred and fifty Pounds Part of the said Sum of Two thousand Pounds was on or about the Fifth Day of July in the Twenty fourth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second laid out in the Purchase of Fee-Farm Rents to the Uses in the said Statute of the Nineteenth of King Charles the Second declared And whereas the Sum of One thousand one hundred and fifty Pounds Residue of the said Sum of Two thousand Pounds with the further Sum of Seven hundred and ninety Pounds added thereunto by the Justices of Peace of the said County (amounting in the whole to the Sum of One thousand nine hundred and forty Pounds) was on or about the Tenth Day of December in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second likewise laid out in the Purchase of Fee-Farm Rents by Order of the General Sessions of the Peace held for the said County of Devon the said Sum of Seven hundred and ninety Pounds being Monies provided by the said Justices of Peace out of some ancient Arrears of the Rates for the Goal and Hospital and maimed Soldiers in the said County by virtue of the said recited Acts And by the Sale and Disposal of the Stock and Materials of the ancient Workhouses or Houses of Correction in the said County of Devon before of little Advantage and then rendred useless by the good Effect and Management of the [new[1]] Goal or Workhouse established by the said last Statute by the Income and Increase of which purchased Premisses the Justices of the Peace of the said County were enabled and did on or about the Twenty third Day of February in the Third Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Anne lay out the further Sum of Five hundred nineteen Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Ten Pence in the Purchase of more such Fee-Farm Rents in Trust and for such Uses as the Justices of the said County for the Time being in their General Quarter Sessions of the Peace should direct and appoint so that the Income of the several Purchases aforesaid amount yearly to the Sum of One hundred eighty and eight Pounds Eleven Shillings and Nine Pence by Means whereof the ancient Rates and Charges on the said County of Devon by the said Two recited Statutes of Queen Elizabeth for Goals and Hospitals and maimed Soldiers and Marriners have been much lessened and abated

III. Further Reasons.

AND whereas the Justices of the Peace of the said County have out of the Income of the said several Purchases and Surplusages of the said Rates (notwithstanding such Abatement) provided a further Sum of Two thousand five hundred Pounds to be laid out in purchasing more such Rents or other Rents or Lands in Fee by like Order and Appointment as aforesaid the Income whereof together with the former may enable them or the Justices of the Peace for the Time being in their General Sessions of the Peace to make further Abatements of the said Rates and Charges upon the said County but it being doubtful whether the said Sum of Two thousand Pounds could be laid out in the Purchase of any other thing than of Lands of Inheritance or whether the said Sum of Seven hundred and ninety Pounds and five hundred and nineteen Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Ten Pence could be laid out in the Purchase of such Fee Farm Rents as aforesaid and the Uses of the Purchases made with the said Sums of Seven hundred and ninety Pounds and Five hundred and nineteen Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Ten Pence declared otherwise then by Authority of Parliament Wherefore the Justices of the Peace and Grand Jury for the said County assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the said County the Third Day of October in the Ninth Year of Her Majesties Reign and divers other Gentlemen of the said County in the Name of themselves and other the Inhabitants of the said County do humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same That the said several Purchases so already made and every Clause Article and Use or Trust relating to them or either of them and declared of and concerning the same or any or either of them are and shall be and are hereby ratified and confirmed and the Justices of the Peace of the said County for the Time being or the major Part of them at their General Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said County may and are hereby impowered to lay out at any Time or Times hereafter the Sum of Two thousand five hundred Pounds in the Purchase of Lands of Inheritance Fee Farm Rents and Hereditaments or in the Purchase of or in taking One or more Lease or Leases from Her Majesty (by Order of the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace) in the Name of such Persons as by such Order shall be appointed and to and for such Uses and Purposes as herein after are declared

The several Purchases herein-before mentioned confirmed;

and Quarter Sessions enabled to lay out the Sum of £2,500 in Purchase of Lands.

IV. Rents of Lands so purchased and to

V. Such Treasurers and Receivers to be subject to Regulations of Stats. 43 Eliz. cc. 2. 3.

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That every such Treasurer and Treasurers Receiver and Receivers or other Person or Persons to be appointed as aforesaid for the collecting and Receipt of the Rents Issues and Profits of the said Purchases shall be under such Regulations Orders Penalties and Forfeitures as the Treasurers elected and appointed by the Justices of Peace pursuant to the said Two recited Statutes made in the Forty third Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth are subject and liable [to[1]] by virtue of these Acts or either of them

VI. Recital of Stat. 18 & 19 Car. II. c. 9. § 4.

AND whereas by the said recited Statute made in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second it was (amongst other Things) enacted that the House with the Grounds therewith enclosed mentioned in the said Statute should be had and used as a common Goal and Workhouse for the said County of Devon in Manner as is thereinafter expressed And that any Person charged with such Offence only (for which Clergy was allowable) if so [be[2]] he were needy and indigent and not likely to maintain himself in Goal might by Warrant of the Justice or Justices of the Peace to whom Jurisdiction in that Behalf appertained be committed to the said Workhouse in order to his Tryal And if any Person should be committed to the ordinary Goal who should be or become so indigent he might by Warrant of Three Justices of the Peace (whereof One to be of the Quorum) be removed from the ordinary common Goal to the said House all which Prisoners so committed or removed should be in the Custody of the Overseer appointed by that Act and be ordered and demeaned in the said House and conveyed to the Sessions or to the Goal [delivered[3]] by like Warrant Ways and Meanes as the Prisoners in other Goals by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm were to be ordered and demeaned And that because the said Workhouse was distant from the ordinary common Goal the Prisoners by Order from the Sessions or Goal Delivery might in order to their Tryals be removed to the common Goal to be the more ready for their Tryals And whereas by a Statute made in the Eleventh and Twelfth Year of the Reign of King William the Third intituled An Act to enable Justices of Peace to build and repair Goals in their respective Counties it was (amongst other Things) enacted that all Murderers and Felons should be imprisoned in the common Goal and not elsewhere and of Stat. 11 W. 3. c. 19. § 3.

VII. The said Stat. 18 & 19 Car. II. c. 9. revived and continued, and the Justices of the County to execute the same.

AND whereas it hath been doubted since the making of this Statute whether the Justices of Peace of the said County of Devon could or can send Felons to the said Workhouse as by the said recited Statute of the Nineteenth of King Charles the Second was directed It is therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the said recited Statute of the Nineteenth of King Charles the Second shall be from henceforth revived and be in full Force and Effect to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever as to for and concerning the said County of Devon And that the Justices of Peace of the said County of Devon for the Time being may put in Execution the said Statute of the Nineteenth of King Charles the Second and all and every the Powers and Things therein contained the Statute made in the Thirty first Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second intituled An Act for the better securing the Liberty of the Subjects and for preventing Imprisonment beyond the Seas or the said recited Statute made in the Eleventh and Twelfth Year of the Reign of King William the Third or any thing in them or either of them contained or any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding

VIII. This Act and the said Stat. 18 & 19 Car. II. c. 9. Public Acts.

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That this present Act and the said recited Statute made in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second and each of them shall in all Clauses and Respects be deemed adjudged and taken and the same are hereby declared to be publick Acts of Parliament

AN ACT for making good Deficiencies and satisfying the public Debts and for erecting a Corporation to carry on a Trade to the South Seas and for the Encouragement of the Fishery and for Liberty to trade in unwrought Iron with the Subjects of Spain and to repeal the Acts for registring Seamen.

Recital that the following Debts and Deficiencies remain.

MOST gracious Sovereign Whereas notwithstanding the many and great Supplies granted to Your Majesty for carrying on the present War the following Debts and Deficiencies are computed to remain still due and unprovided for (that is to say)

The Sum of Five millions one hundred and thirty thousand five hundred thirty nine Pounds Five Shillings and Five Pence for the Debt of Your Majesties Navy and for Services performed by the Navy on account of Land Forces to the Nine and twentieth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and ten (exclusive of the Debt for the Register of Seamen) and

The Sum of One hundred fifty four thousand three hundred twenty four Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Eight Pence Farthing for the Debt of Your Majesties Office of Ordnance to the Nine and twentieth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and ten and

The Sum of Four hundred twenty four thousand seven hundred ninety one Pounds Five Shillings and Four Pence Farthing for Transport Service to the Nine and twentieth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and ten and

The Sum of One million and eighteen thousand six hundred fifty six Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Nine Pence Farthing for the Principal and Interest Money due to the Nine and twentieth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and ten on Army and Transport Debentures made out for the Service of the last War and

The Sum of Twelve thousand twenty five Pounds and One Shilling for the Principal Money and Interest to the Nine and twentieth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and ten of deficient Tallies and Orders for Money lent on an Act made in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Third (of glorious Memory) and another Act made in the First Year of Your Majesties Reign for laying Duties on Coals Culm and Cynders and

The Sum of Three hundred seventy eight thousand eight hundred fifty nine Pounds Five Shillings and Eight Pence Farthing computed for Debts incurred between the Nine and twentieth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and ten and the Five and twentieth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and ten in the several Offices of the Navy Victualling and Transport and for Interest on the said Army and Transport Debentures in that Time and

The Sum of Nine thousand three hundred seventy and five Pounds to satisfie the Money due upon Account of Subsidies to the Elector of Hanover and Duke of Zell pursuant to a Treaty bearing Date the Fourteenth Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety six

All which said several Sums so computed to be due and owing as aforesaid do amount in the whole to the Sum of Seven millions one hundred twenty eight thousand five hundred seventy one Pounds Ten Shillings and Eleven Pence and the Interest of such Part of the said several Debts as do carry Interest from the said Five and twentieth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and ten to the Five and twentieth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eleven are computed to amount to the Sum of Eighty five thousand Pounds which being added to the said Sum of Seven millions one hundred twenty eight thousand five hundred seventy one Pounds Ten Shillings and Eleven Pence makes the Total of the said Debts amount to the Sum of Seven millions two hundred and thirteen thousand five hundred and seventy one Pounds Ten Shillings and Eleven Pence

Total Amount of the said Debts and Deficiencies, £7,213,571 10s. 11d.

II.

AND whereas there has been lent and advanced into the Receipt of Your Majesties Exchequer pursuant to an Act made in the said Eighth Year of Your Majesties Reign (among other things) for continuing several Impositions additional Impositions and Duties upon Goods imported to raise Money by way of Loan for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ten the Sum of One million two hundred ninety six thousand five hundred fifty two Pounds Nine Shillings and Eleven Pence Three Farthings

Stat. 8 Ann. c. 14. and see c. 5.

III.

AND whereas the Fond by the said last mentioned Act settled for Payment of the Interest of the said Money lent in pursuance of the said Act do not yet take place so that no Interest hath yet been paid upon or for the said Money lent or advanced in pursuance of the said Act and the Interest due upon the said Money on the Five and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and eleven is computed to amount to the Sum of Seventy four thousand eight hundred seventy five Pounds Nineteen Shillings and One Peny Farthing and the said Principal and Interest Money so lent and due on the said last mentioned Act do amount together by Computation to the Sum of One million three hundred seventy one thousand four hundred twenty eight Pounds Nine Shillings and One Peny which being added to the above mentioned Sum of Seven millions two hundred and thirteen thousand five hundred seventy one Pounds Ten Shillings and Eleven Pence above computed to be the total Amount of the before mentioned Debts and Deficiencies will make the said Debts and Deficiencies and the Principal and Interest Money to the Five and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and eleven due upon the said Act of the said Eighth Year of Your Majesties Reign amount together in the Whole to the Sum of Eight millions five hundred eighty five thousand Pounds the Interest of which said Sum of Eight millions five hundred eighty five thousand Pounds from the Five and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and eleven to the Five and twentieth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eleven being computed at the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum doth amount unto the Sum of Three hundred eighty six thousand three hundred and twenty five Pounds which being added to the said Sum of Eight millions five hundred eighty five thousand Pounds makes the Sum Total of the said Debts Sums of Money and Interest to the said Five and twentieth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eleven amount to the Sum of Eight millions nine hundred seventy one thousand three hundred twenty five Pounds

Recital that the Funds by the said Act do not yet take place, and that the Money due for Principal and Interest on the said Act amounts to £1,371,428 9s. 1d., and that the same added to the said Sum of £7,213,571 10s. 11d., makes the total Amount of Debts and Deficiencies £8,585, the Interest whereof being added makes the last Amount thereof £8,971,325.

IV.

AND whereas great Part of the Tallies and Orders struck made and signed for the said Money lent in pursuance of the said Act made in the said Eighth Year of Your Majesties Reign are in the Hands of the respective Treasurers or Paymasters of Your Majesties Navy and Land Forces and of Your Majesties Ordnance and Transport [Service'] or other publick Offices and cannot be disposed of without great Loss and Discount and to the Damage of the publick Credit and other Part of the Tallies and Orders struck made out and signed for other Part of the said Monies lent or advanced in pursuance of the said last mentioned Act are or may be in the Hands of such Person or Persons as may be better pleased with the perpetual Interest after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum redeemable by Parliament and the Privilege of Trade and other Privileges and Advantages by this Act granted Now we Your Majesties most dutiful and faithful Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled being duly affected with the deepest Sense of the Happiness we enjoy under Your Majesties most gracious and wise Administration and being truly desirous to do all that becomes dutiful and faithful Subjects to render happy and glorious the Reign of the best of Sovereigns and having taken into our most serious Consideration all the said Debts and Deficiencies and the many ill Consequences which may arise to the Publick thereby (if not timely remedied) and being heartily zealous to preserve the Honour of Your Majesty and the Nation and to establish the publick Credit and to enable Your Majesty to prosecute the present War (so necessarily entred into)

Recital that the Tallies, &c. under the said Stat. 8 Ann. c. 14. cannot be disposed of without great Loss.

Reasons for passing this Act.

Customs and Duties payable to Her Majesty as if the same had been first imported to any Part of Great Britain and from thence exported for and in respect of all such Goods and Merchandizes to be divided and disposed of as in the said Act is directed in pursuance of which Act several Bonds and other Securities have been given for the Payment of such Customs and Duties for Prize Goods and Merchandizes taken in America and adjudged to be lawful Prize but by Experience it is found that the subjecting such Prize Goods and Merchandizes taken in America to such Customs and Duties as if the same had been imported into any Part of Great Britain and from thence exported hath been very prejudicial to Her Majesties Plantations and Colonies and hath in a great Measure prevented the Importation thereof into those Plantations and Colonies Be it therefore enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same That from and after the First Day of June One thousand seven hundred and eleven all Prize Goods and Merchandizes taken in America by any Ship or Vessel of War in Her Majesties Pay or Service or by any other private Ship or Ships of War acting by Commission or Commissions according to the said Act and imported into any of Her Majesties Plantations or Colonies in America shall be liable to such Duties as are herein after mentioned that is to say All European Goods Merchandizes and Commodities (Wines and Brandies excepted) or other Commodities which have usually been sent from hence to the Plantations taken as Prize by any such Ship Vessel or Vessels of War shall be liable to the Customs and Duties payable to Her Majesty for the like Goods imported into the said Plantations from Great Britain and all other Goods Merchandizes and Commodities taken as Prize as aforesaid shall be subject and liable to such Duties Customs and Impositions only as were payable for the same upon the Importation thereof into those Plantations or as are payable for the same by any Act or Acts of Assembly in the said Plantations and Colonies Any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding

Reasons for passing this Act.

Prize Goods imported into American Colonies, liable to Duties, as herein mentioned.

II. AND whereas several Bonds and other Securities have been obtained at Jamaica for the Payment of Duties chargeable by virtue of the said Clause in the Act of the Sixth Year of Her Majesties Reign upon Cocoa Sugars Indico Snuff Tobacco Piemento and other Commodities of the Growth of America which are usually afterwards imported into this Kingdom and pay the full Duties here and also for Wines and Brandies which are seldom sent from Great Britain which may reasonably be discharged of the said British Duties because the said several Commodities are upon their Importation into Jamaica liable to pay large Customs towards the Support of that Government Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid That all Bonds and other Securities that have been taken or obtained at Jamaica as aforesaid whereto the Captors or any of them are liable for the Payment of Duties chargeable by virtue of the aforesaid Clause upon Cocoa Sugar Indico Snuff Tobacco Piemento and other Commodities of the Growth of America and for Wines and Brandies the said Bonds and other Securities remaining unsatisfied upon the said First Day of June One thousand seven hundred and eleven shall remain without any Prosecution thereupon until the End of the next Session of Parliament Any thing in the said recited Act or any other Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding

II. Reasons for passing this Enactment.

Securities for Duty taken at Jamaica, as herein mentioned, remaining unsatisfied on the 1st June 1711, to remain without Prosecution to the End of the next Session.

III. [PROVIDED always and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the respective Officers or other Persons with whom the said Bonds or Securities or any of them do or shall remain shall on or before the Twelfth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eleven certifie to the Commissioners of Her Majesties Customs in England for the Time being the Tenor of the said Bonds and Securities remaining undischarged as aforesaid and for what Duties the same Bonds or Securities were taken and the said Commissioners of the Customs for the Time being upon the receiving of such Certificates shall examine upon Oath and by all other lawful Ways and Means into the Case and Circumstances of the respective Persons liable to the said unsatisfied Bonds and Securities or any of them and the Causes for which they or any of them were given and shall thereupon make Report in Writing to the Commons of Great Britain in the next Session of Parliament[1]]

III. Officers with whom such Goods remain, to certify by the 12th Jan. 1711, to Commissioners of Customs, the Tenor of Securities remaining undischarged, &c.

IV. AND it is further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That all Prize Goods and Commodities which after the said First Day of June shall be imported into any of the Ports of Great Britain shall be subject and liable to the Payment of the same Duties as those Goods and Commodities would have paid in case they had not been Prize Any thing in this present or any other former Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.
